

MOVING FROM RED TO BLACK

I had a thrilling opportunity on Sunday, February 8, to experience our TreeHouse and Student Ministries in action. Each large group gathering and small group interaction was geared to teaching the biblical principals of finance. Then, as I engaged in Bill Towne's powerful teaching in the adult service and participated in the anointed praise led by Liz Dugger, I was struck with the reality of the Apostle Paul's insight in 1 Corinthians 12:13, about the movement of the Holy Spirit when we are all engaged in the same biblical thrust: "For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body." As I interacted with many people in the halls and the Atrium, it gave me a taste of what it means to be immersed into one functioning body of believers and the powerful effect it can have in our lives.

In addition to all of that, 75 of our 113 Community Groups participated in the excellent seven-week small group study. Also, 510 people participated in the all-day Red to Black Financial Seminar on Saturday, February 7. Out of that gathering, many people expressed a need to be helped by a financial coach or to help others by becoming financial counselors.

Here are just a few of the wonderful stories of what God is doing through this series:

- An eleven-year-old boy came to 'big church' and commented to his dad how this was just like a classroom setting. He noticed all the people filling in the blanks and taking notes. He also asked his dad later to explain the spending plan that was part of the message. The father was able to walk his son through the expenditures of his family in a typical month and the boy exclaimed, "Wow! It costs that much to turn on the lights in the house?" and "Dad, you pay that much for taxes?"

- A young couple have begun sharing the responsibility of grocery shopping and they are using only cash. It has been an eye opener for each of them, not only about what food costs but also how they can spend less.
- A whole Community Group is holding each other accountable to implement budgets.
- A TreeHouse teacher was asking her little 5-year-old kids, "How do your Daddy and Mommy get money?" After really thinking about it, a little girl said, "They WIN it!" A little guy thought more and more and said, "They WORK for it!"

More stories continue to be heard (read them at rollinghills.org/series-stories), but this gives you a glimpse into what the Spirit of the Lord is doing in our hearts, minds, and actions. Even though we have finished the series in the Sunday Services, the Community Groups will continue their study through the weekend of March 8. I praise God and thank you for being so faithful to the LORD, especially as you are moving from Red to Black!

In Christ,

Pastor Dale
