Avail yourself of the greatest privilege this side of heaven. Jesus Christ died to make this communion and communication with the Father possible. – Billy Graham

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. – Apostle Paul

Divide your time into two sections. Don't be too worried about the clock, there is no need to hurry. This is a time to be quiet and seek the Lord, waiting on Him. Wait on Him...

SECTION ONE

• Wait on the Lord

- a. Realize & acknowledge His presence

Psalm 139; 62:5; 27:14

• Praise: Recognizing God's Faithfulness and Blessings

- a. Praise Him for His goodness, blessings, faithfulness

Deut. 32:4; Psalm 33:4; 36:5; 40:11; Lamentations 3:23-24

- b. Ask God to help you see how is this reinforcing truth in you, opening your eyes to opportunities, correcting wrong thinking? How does this impact you as you look to this coming year?

SECTION TWO

• Pray for your 2023

- a. Confession

Proverbs 28:13; Ps 32:5

- b. To be cleansed

Psalm 51:32, 1 John 1:9

- c. "Lord, what do you think of my life?" Listen, think, consider.

- d. Consider your dependence on God for your life, who you are and how you support and influence others (as best you understand).

Col 3:15; Phil 1:6; 1 Peter 5:7; Ps 46:10; Is 30:15

- e. "God, what are you telling me about what to do in me and through me in 2023?"

Jn 10:27-28; Psalm 25:4-5; 37:4-5; Matt 6:33; James 1:22

- f. Is there a theme or focus? What is it I should stop or start in order to align my life with what you're telling me? How does that look this coming week?
